SECTION 3 – DESCRIPTION OF SERVICE (CONT'D)*3.2.5 30-Day Non-Usage Policy

- A. The Company has the ability to monitor call activity through CDR platforms. Should a Lifeline customer account not show activity for 30 calendar days (approximately one consecutive month), the customer will be de-enrolled from the Lifeline program on day-31. After day-30, the customer will have to re-apply (complete application and provide proof of identity) and qualify (provide proof of eligibility) for the Lifeline program. Recertification process is not applicable.
- B. Company will provide the customer 15 days' notice that the customer's failure to use the Lifeline service within the 15-day notice period will result in de-enrollment from the Lifeline program for non-usage. In addition to the written notice to the customer's address, the company may send text messages or attempt to call the customer or hot line the Lifeline phone number (forcing the customer to call customer service before making other calls on the Lifeline phone).
- C. A customer may do any one (1) of the following to maintain an active account or cure non-usage prior to de-enrollment on day-31:
1. By completing an outbound call or using data;
  2. By purchasing minutes or data to add to your plan;
  3. By answering an incoming call from a party other than your carrier;
  4. By responding to direct contact from your carrier and confirming that you want to continue receiving the service; or
  5. By sending a text message.

SECTION 3 – DESCRIPTION OF SERVICE (CONT'D)

- D. Customer accounts that are cured from non-usage prior to day-31 will retain any unused minutes that accrued during the applicable days of non-usage consistent with the customer's Lifeline plan and additional top up minutes, if applicable. (C)
- E. Customers who have been de-enrolled from the Lifeline program per the 30-Day Non-Usage Rule may re-enroll in the Lifeline program in the future. Assuming that this customer completes the application process and qualifies for Lifeline benefits, the customer will be enrolled in the program and will be provided the monthly allotment of minutes in accordance with the newly selected Lifeline plan following re-enrollment. There is no bridging of minutes or services from previous enrollment of the Lifeline program. (C)
- F. Once a Subscriber has been de-enrolled from Lifeline, the Company will cease seeking reimbursement from the USF for the Subscriber.
